

Civil Business at Dumbarton Sheriff Court from 25th March 2020 to 8th May 2020

The Court will pronounce interlocutors discharging all civil diets fixed between the dates of 25th March 2020 and 8th May 2020, subject to the following exceptions:

- A. Any hearings fixed in applications under the Children's Hearing (Scotland) Act 2011
- B. Summary Causes cases
- C. Simple Procedure cases
- D. Cases with proof diets assigned

Details of the dates to which cases have been continued to can be found in Appendix 1 below

- Category A cases guidance was issued on 26th March 2020.
- Category B cases including diets of assessment have been sisted.
- Category C cases have been paused.
- Category D cases will be adjourned ex proprio motu to a date to be afterwards assigned in terms of "Coronavirus – Guidance in respect of Civil Business No. 1 of 2020" of 24 March 2020.

Please note that these orders do not apply to cases originating from Oban or Campbeltown. These will be adjourned administratively by these courts.

The guidance contained within "Coronavirus – Guidance in respect of Civil Business No. 1 of 2020" of 24 March 2020 and No. 2 of 2020 of 25 March 2020 continues to apply.

Specifically, where a party believes they require essential urgent business to be dealt with they should continue to email Paisley@scotcourts.gov.uk for the request to be placed before a sheriff for consideration in the first instance.

If you have any queries regarding this notice, please contact cmcshane@scotcourts.gov.uk and I will endeavour to respond as quickly as possible.

Caroline McShane

Sheriff Clerk Dumbarton
