Order in respect of Solemn Criminal Business – Refixing Diets

No. 14 of 2020

In relation to the following categories of solemn criminal business calling in the weeks specified in column A of the Schedule to this order, certain diets have been assigned for days which are no longer suitable to the court, namely:

1. All cases calling in the first diet courts (including continued first diets) (excepting those where the accused is in custody in relation to the matter for which he or she is scheduled to appear); and
2. All cases calling in the solemn trials courts (excepting those where the accused is in custody in relation to the matter for which he or she is scheduled to appear).

In accordance with the power set out in section 75C of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 ("the 1995 Act"), the court, of its own accord, hereby discharges the said diets assigned for the weeks specified in column A of the Schedule to this order and fixes new diets as follows:

1. In respect of all cases calling in the first diet courts (excepting those where the accused is in custody in relation to the matter for which he or she is scheduled to appear) in a week specified in column A of the Schedule to this order, a new diet will be fixed for the same day in the week set out in column B of the same row of the Schedule; and

2. In respect of all cases calling in the solemn trials courts (excepting those where the accused is in custody in relation to the matter for which he or she is scheduled to appear) in a week specified in column A of the Schedule to this guidance, a new trial diet will be fixed for the same day in the week set out in column C of the same row of the Schedule.
