VACANCY FOR SOLICITOR

We have a vacancy for a Litigation Solicitor in predominantly Family and Children's work.

We are a busy Glasgow city centre firm often dealing in emergency work. Experience in Family and Children's work and legal aid is essential. Criminal experience preferred but not required.

We require a confident and friendly individual who is well organised and is able to meet deadlines. Quality of service is extremely important to us and we are seeking an individual who can provide a high quality of service to the client and work to high professional standards.

We operate a paperless system and the applicant must be confident in electronic correspondence and electronic file management, although previous experience of a paperless system is not required.

The job will be based at our city centre office although we are currently working from home due to Covid-19.

The successful candidate will preferably work 3 or 4 days per week however hours and working arrangements are negotiable with potential to combine working from home and at the office.

Salary is competitive and dependent on relevant experience and working arrangements agreed.

If you are interested please contact Lee Doyle at the email address above.

PLEASE NOTE OUR OFFICE IS CLOSED IN LIGHT OF COVID-19. PLEASE CONTACT US BY EMAIL OR TELEPHONE ONLY. THANK YOU.
