Dear Member,

PIDMs

Given that custody, part heard and priority trials only are currently proceeding at Glasgow Sheriff Court, we are being actively encouraged by the Sheriff Principal to engage in the PIDM process which will obviate the necessity to attend Intermediate Diets where for whatever reason, the trial diet is being adjourned.

For those practitioners who for whatever reason have not been utilising the online PIDM booking application, you should email GlasgowSummaryWR@copfs.gov.uk and request a telephone meeting for the allocated PIDM date. Please include in your email the accused's name, P.F. Reference, Date of Intermediate Diet and your contact telephone number.

For those who wish assistance to register for the online booking system, please note that our Executive Committee colleagues can offer assistance. Please contact Lindsay Gaughan, telephone _____, email _____ or Scott Adair, telephone _____, email _____.

Please provide feedback about any challenges faced to fiona@mckinnonlaw.co.uk. We meet with COPFS on 17th March 2021 and it is our intention to raise issues arising then.

Kind regards,

The Executive Committee of the Glasgow Bar Association.
